

Neighborhood News

Dawson.

Special to The Tribune.

Little Herold Maze was very sick during the week.

Joseph Heim and wife were in Humboldt on business Saturday.

A baby boy has arrived at the home of Hugh O'Grady jr. and wife.

Mrs. I. H. McGinnis has been under the doctors care the past week.

Herman Tiehen was up from Salem Saturday to see his nephew, H. A. Tiehen.

J. J. Brown left last week for an extended visit with his son Richard in Montana.

Anna Martin went to Falls City, Friday and visited her parents till Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. John Taylor and little Marcella spent the greater part of last week with relatives in Auburn.

Mrs. Nesladek was up from Falls City over Sunday visiting her son and daughter near this place.

W. H. Hendricks of Kansas City was in town Saturday buying the surplus stock of horses and mules in this vicinity.

The thermometer registered ten degrees below zero at this place Monday morning, the coldest weather of the season.

Mr. McKee is the name of the new harness maker at Stoltz's hardware store. Mr. Hahn is assisting him for the present.

W. C. Heim, our genial station agent, has been walking with the aid of a cane, as the result of injuries received by falling on the ice.

Joseph and Minnie Tiehen were called home last Friday from the convent at Falls City on account of the dangerous illness of their brother, Alex Tiehen.

H. A. Tiehen, who was so seriously ill with typhoid fever that no hopes of his recovery were entertained, is now a little improved and his many friends hope for his ultimate restoration to health.

Two broken arms is the record for one day on account of the ice at this place. Mrs. Bittner fell on the ice in her yard and broke her arm near the elbow, and Mrs. Barney Riley broke her arm at the wrist from the same cause.

Mamie Ryan was hostess to the ladies of the Candlelight club last Wednesday evening. "Hearts" was the game of the evening, Miss O'Grady winning first prize and Daisy Smith the consolation. Everything was carried out on the "Heart" order. The club meets next week with Mamie Fenton.

Verdon.

Special to The Tribune.

Beecher Cornell returned from Lincoln Monday.

Dr. Hutchison came down from Omaha on Sunday.

Mr. Kelly moved his family to a farm near Silver Creek.

Heinzelman Bros. shipped a car of feed to St. Louis, Monday.

No. 453 drew the kitchen cabinet that Verdon Roller mills put out.

Dr. Deitrich came in from the west Sunday to visit his brother Frank.

Jake Sailor of Auburn was transacting business in Verdon Thursday.

After an absence of several months John Evans returned to visit relatives.

Jake Neifert and Walter Clark left last week for Trenton, Neb., to be absent a few weeks.

Mrs. Morrison and Leona Shifer visited Al Ramsey and wife near Dawson Saturday and Sunday.

Sherman Shiley is in Missouri looking after his farm and getting ready to move his family there.

Geo. Lum went to Kansas City the first of the week to attend the Lumberman's association returning Thursday.

Eb Goolsby and wife returned from Falls City Sunday where they made a short visit to Frank Adams and wife.

A sister of Mrs. John Weaver, who has been visiting here for several weeks returned to her home in Illinois Sunday.

Rev. Morrison began packing his household effects Tuesday to ship to McPherson, Kans., where he had accepted a call to preach.

M. F. Look left for Omaha, Monday to purchase his spring stock of goods and Grace Sailor is clerking in the store during his absence.

G. A. Jorn and family south of town with Miss Keiker visited C. M. Heinzelman on Sunday. Miss Keiker lives near Corning, Mo., and is a sister of Mrs. Jorn and Mrs. Heinzelman.

The members of the Congregational church have secured the services of Rev. Bohn for the coming year. We are sorry indeed to have Rev. McRea leave us but welcome the new pastor.

A few weeks ago one of our senior class in the high school was one of the winners in the county contest, later won in the state contest at Lincoln. On Monday Prof. Funk in behalf of the school board presented him with a beautiful gold medal with the inscription "Ray Arnold 1904 S. S. C." showing their apprecia-

A GOOD PLACE

to buy

Drugs, Books, Wall Paper, Etc.

THE KING PHARMACY

Our line is always complete, and our prices are as low as is consistent with first class goods. We also give five per cent rebate on all cash purchases. We solicit your patronage tion and encouraging the good work. We hope other schools will follow this example. Ray Arnold is fifteen years old.

King's Pharmacy

Barada.

Special to The Tribune.

Herbert Stokes is on the sick list.

Albert Michels transacted business here Friday.

Mrs. James Stevenson was seriously ill a few days last week.

Ignus Lippold marketed six loads of hogs to Shubert Monday.

Mike Casey came down from South Dakota to attend some business.

The sleet that covers the trees will probably injure some of the fruit trees.

Wm. Heime, who has been confined to his bed for some time is able to be out again.

Mrs. Elva Rannals of Stella was the guest of her friend, Mrs. Wesley Smith the past week.

George Hudson has accepted a position with a firm at St. Joseph and left for that place last week.

Misses Grace and Ellen Stevenson returned Friday from a few weeks visit with friends at Lincoln.

Wm. Nutter returned from St. Joe where he had been the past few days attending to business matters.

May Kyle returned to the home of her parents last week after a few months stay at the home of Ed Spitznagle.

Wm. Kuker and wife gave a birthday dinner one day last week in honor of Mr. Long which was very much enjoyed by all.

Mrs. William Cox arrived home the last of the week from Bancroft where she visited with her parents, Joseph Kelly and wife.

Postmaster Smith's resignation has been accepted by the government and Mr. Marks will succeed him. Mrs. Smith will give his attention to farming in the future.

Several men came out from Falls City to repair the telephone wires but on account of the ice which covers the poles they repaired them temporarily.

Contractor Ramsey came in from the western part of the county to remain a few days at home. He says the ice has put a stop to his work for the present.

Wanted—Two boarders at private place. Good location one block from Main street inquire at Tribune office. 1tf

A building and loan association has been organized at North Loup.

W. E. HANER

DEALER IN

FRUITS

CONFECTIONERY

CIGARS

TOBACCO

LUNCH COUNTER

SHORT ORDERS

A SPECIALTY : :

Op. P. O. Falls City